Being a model is not as glamorous as you might think. Step into the lives of the real models who are out there every day trying to fight for work. From social networking to long hours, binge diets, drugs and more, this is the real story of models, designers and the world of fashion.

Find out what really happens on and off the sexiest runway ever produced. What happens when one of the models shows up drunk to her shoot for Inked Girls Magazine?

Emotions run high on and off the runway when the models get aroused during a rehearsal.

Working with designers, nightclubs and celebrities from Hollywood to Las Vegas, Mr. Sigmund choreographs fashion shows, naked sushi parties, live tattoo shows, photo shoots and exclusive print ads for apparel designers.

GREG TRUELOVE first began diving into the world of photography on trips to Japan. It was on the streets of Tokyo that he found a passion for capturing the world through the lens of a camera. In his studio in Atlanta, Georgia he developed his skills for lighting and a distinct style for shooting models. Trips to Los Angeles eventually led to him shooting for clients like Perfect 10, Liberator, and TapouT.

TABATHA JACOBS was raised in Michigan and studied photography and psychology before moving to Houston to open my own studio. Currently she shoots commercial and advertising work while practicing the fine art of Pin Up in both photographic and painted form. As a photographer her style can most accurately be described as intimate – She wants people to be able to see a glimpse of the mood on the set regardless of whether that mood was serious, goofy, aloof, or even stern.

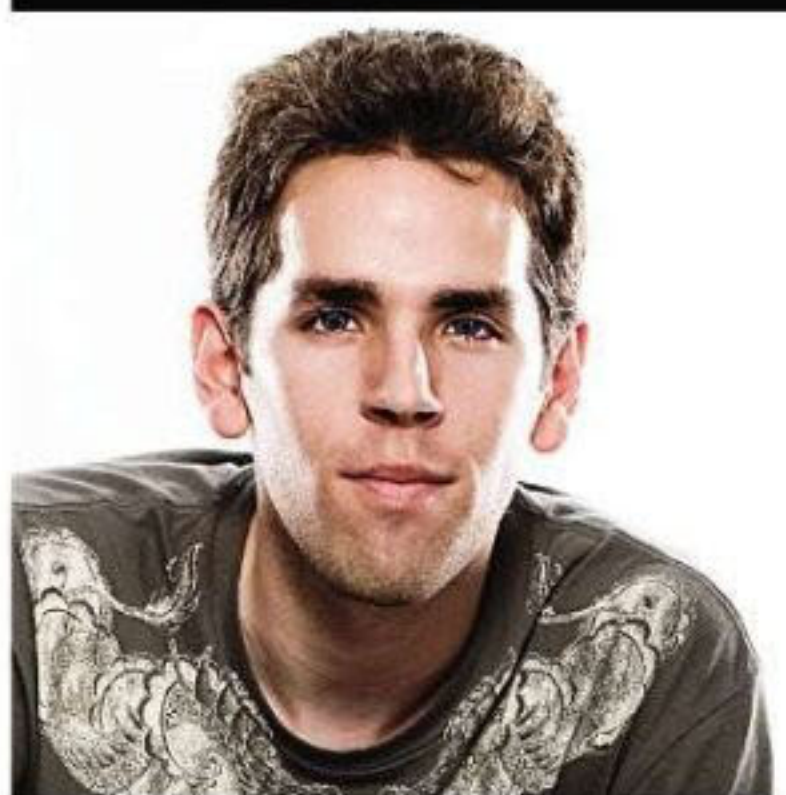

JORDAN HALL is a Los Angeles based photographer. After graduating from Chapman University, Hall began his career shooting editorials for entertainment and fashion publications and has since been published both domestically and internationally. A working model, Hall loves shooting portraits and working with subjects from all walks of life. A lot of people don't like Los Angeles, but it was 70 degrees on Christmas this year and he doesn't plan on leaving.

JASON IERACE's passion for visual imagery has taken him into many aspects of the industry both in Australia and around the world. With a background in photography and graphic design, Jason's work sees him use both these mediums to develop his strong graphic style yet his compassion and warmth in dealing with his subject is his trademark.

KEVIN WEAVER has been practicing and exploring the art of photography ever since he was old enough to operate a camera. As a child, he drew inspiration from his surroundings in the redwoods of northern California, and now he is inspired by the diverse urban setting of downtown Los Angeles. Using natural light or minimal lighting, he believes in a simplistic approach to reveal his subject's natural beauty.

KEN PENN is a Philadelphia based photographer who in the late 80's began photographing the emerging punk and hardcore bands in the Washington, D.C., and Richmond Virginia scenes. Penn is now deeply involved with the fashion and fine art areas of photography while still shooting musicians whenever possible. On his down time this 6 foot 4 inch, soft-spoken, tattooed, straight edge artist can be found making silly faces with his 6 month old daughter Sabina.

LIZ BENSON is a Fashion/Editorial photographer in Wilmington, Delaware. Liz has a cutting edge style that draw many to her simply because of her intense creativity. She not only is the photographer but does all her own makeup, hair, styling, set design/concept and retouching for all of her shoots. Originally from NYC, Liz is taking shaking things up in Delaware. A lot of inspiration for her work comes from growing up in NYC, she is inspired by haute couture, avant garde styles on the runways, and people on the street...Liz strives to always be original and uber creative with all that she does.

MATTHEW HANLON believes that photography has always been about making the people he admires and respects look awesome. He has photographed subjects ranging from motor cross racers to rock bands to corporate leaders. His life and photography development began on the beaches of Southern California and, now that he resides in NYC, Matthew continues his dedication to refining his photography skill everytime he picks up his camera.

ADAM WHITE is a Jacksonville, FL based Photographer, Active Duty Service Member, owner of A. Whites Photography and studio Manager for Kind Industries. Adam has always been a big fan of tattooed and pierced models as well as retro styles. He is continually evolving and trying new styles of photography.

SCHA SADOZAI is a professional photographer based in New York City. His work has been published in national and international magazines. He also shoots for major fashion houses and top modeling agencies. Photography, in any form, is his passion. Although he has numerous tattoos of his own, this is Scha's first foray into the world of "inked" photography. You can view a more extensive body of work on his website.

DEBBI ROTKOWITZ is a professional photographer originally from New Jersey and now based in Los Angeles. Her passion is creating quirky fashion images that tell a story. She also enjoys shooting people with interesting tattoos, especially if your tattoo is of New Jersey.

IAN TRAVIS BARNARD spends most of his time bouncing between Boston and Providence hauling an assortment of video and still gear to restaurants, studios, back stage and back alleys. He loves taking pictures of musicians, girls with tattoos and dudes training to get punched in the face. He jumps back and forth between still and motion capture in a constant effort to challenge himself, always trying to create a visual story. When he's not shooting you'll usually find him standing over a grill cooking up some chicken and figs.

ISHAN KEMAL is a freelance photographer residing in the UK. His main work consists of fashion, tattoo/alt glamour, and film stills. He likes incorporating a number of styles into my photography, as I feel it gives him a challenge and also diversifies his images. He is extremely interested in traveling the world and capturing the beauty of human society.

SHANNON BROOKE is primarily an L.A. based photographer focusing on commercial portraiture. Shooting everything from pinup and fashion to music and advertising, her diversity is endless. Recent adventures include shooting in Australia twice in the last year, and starting a studio in Sacramento, California. Previously a lead photographer at West Coast Choppers and Hot Topic, Inc., she is now a full time freelancer working on her own publications.

JOSEPH M. BERTHOSKY shoots people, places, and things. With cameras. He loves his wife (Antietam), his two Boston Terriers (Twinkie and Moo), and creating awesome images. A series of recent life changes is leading him and his family on a mission to move to California, shooting the whole way there. Keep an eye out for what's in store on their journey, and at the destination.

MICHELLE STAR "A bright star that lights her own path of beauty and form. Michelle stands out in the pitch of the Angeleno night, swimming amongst the metrosea of a million luminous points. Her shine... is obvious, her perspective allowing the aesthetic adoration of image to exist in every arc of space. Her passion, her dreams, her inspiration tattooed on her wrists- never forgetting that true desire lay too deep in ones soul to confine beauty to skin and dreams to the dreamer."
